

6516208140.txt

I feel that traffic and weather reports are a public service. And being a public service it should not matter to broadcasts the reports.. just as long as the public is hearing them. Yes, there are still people that listen to AM/FM radio, and those people can hear the reports locally, but more and more people are listening to XM Radio.. and they should be able to hear teh reports also.

-Brett